

Prayer Calendar

September 2017

SUN	MON	TUES	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
					1. First Responders, EMT, police and firefighters	2. For safety of all the travelers this holiday weekend
3.22 nd Sunday Ordinary Time Parishioners of St. Joseph Parish & Members of the Parish Partnership	4. All Who Have Work	5. For all the PSR students & teachers	6. The Homebound & Those in Nursing Homes & Assisted Living Centers	7. Leaders and Members of Our Youth Ministry Groups In Our Parish Partnership	8. Safe Haven for Refugees	9. Those Pursuing Religious, Priestly, Diaconate and Lay Ministry Vocations
10. 23 rd Sunday in Ordinary Time For All the Grandparents	11. Those Killed in the Tragic Events of 9-11-2001	12. The Bishops & Priests Attending the Annual Priest Convocation	13. Proper Prices for our Grain & Our Livestock	14. Bishops Braxton & Schlarman & All Active & Retired Priests in Our Diocese	15. Members of Our Parish Pastoral & Finance Councils and Our Parish Trustees	16. Return to Active Participation of All Non-Active Members of Our Church
17. 24 th Sunday in Ordinary Time All Religious Sisters & Priests serving in Our Vicariate	18. The Marginalized of Our Society	19. Pope Francis & the Leaders of Our Church	20. For our Quilters	21. Members of the Adorers of the Blood of Christ Congregation	22. All Missionaries	23. The Archbishop, Priests, & People of the Archdiocese of Onitcha, Nigeria
24. 25 th Sunday in Ordinary Time World Peace and Justice & the Elimination of Gender Inequality & Racism	25. Those Who Are Protecting Our Country	26. The Mentally & Physically Challenged	27. Unity of All Christians	28. The Newly Widowed Who Face Life Challenges Alone	29. For the Homebound, Hospitalized and in Healthcare Facilities	30 The Newly Widowed Who Face Life Challenges Alone

Dear Parishioners, We continue in “Ordinary Time” in our Church and in our “Faith” life. We are in “Summer Time” in our “Secular” life. The two lives are, by necessity, intertwined. Our response to God’s act of love is our growth in the life of prayer and spiritual practices. I invite you to use this calendar to pray just 5 minutes a day for the intention listed.